Board of Library Trustees Meeting
Berkeley Public Library
November 2, 2022
To: Board of Library Trustees
From: Nneka Gallaread, Administrative and Fiscal Services Manager
Subject: Proposed Personnel Changes, Impact to Budget FY 2023-24 – All Library Funds

RECOMMENDATION
Adopt the resolution amending the FY 2023 and FY 2024 approved Expenditures Budget for the Library Tax Fund by $55,603.52 in FY 2023 and $42,507.52 in 2024 to provide for three proposed changes to existing vacant positions.

INTRODUCTION
The Library proposes to make changes to three positions that are currently vacant. These changes, while almost budget neutral, do have some marginal budgetary impact and for this reason would impact the Library’s approved FY 2023 and 24 budgets in the following way:

The proposed Budget for all Library Funds for FY 2023 and 24 projects revenue of $24,111,188 and $24,587,943; respectively and expenditures of $24,905,700 and $25,160,802. The following table reflects the dollar values by Fund grouping.

<tr>
<td>Berkeley Public Library</td>

</tr>
</table>

The total increase to personnel expenditures due to this change would be $55,603.52 in FY 2023 and $42,507.52 in 2024. Because these positions already have associated pension and medical benefits packages, the difference is primarily driven by the pay differential between classifications.

CURRENT SITUATION
The Library is requesting changes related to FTEs and to the organizational structure as described below. Recommended changes to staffing will not result in any individual being repositioned, re-classed, nor impacted by any form of job loss, reduction in-force, or lay-off. All staffing proposals contained in this report are directly related to short and long-term library interests and operations. The changes enumerated below that impact bargaining unit members, #1 and #3, have been discussed with the Library’s Joint Labor Management Team.
The Library proposes three changes:

1. Converting a vacant Information Systems Specialist in the Information Technology team to a Sr. Information Systems Specialist.
2. Converting a vacant Assistant Management Analyst position in the Administration and Fiscal Services team into an Associate Management Analyst position.
3. Changing two part-time (.5 FTE) Library Aide positions in the Collection Services team into one full-time Library Assistant position.

Sr. Information Systems Specialist: The benefit of this proposed change is that it creates a promotional pathway in what is otherwise a fairly “flat” team of one manager and four positions that report to it. The Senior Specialist has increased leadership and analytic requirements, which will also support the team as they pursue several more complex initiatives in the years ahead.

Associate Management Analyst: The current fiscal services team includes two Assistant Management Analyst and one Accounting Office Specialist III. In the past, the team had an AOS Supervisor, but the position was downgraded to an AOSIII to account for the impact of the 2008 recession. Changing one of the existing Assistant Management Analyst positions to an Associate Management Analyst position does not increase the group’s FTE but would provide a more rational pathway for promotion within the Library’s finance group from an AOSIII, to entry-level Assistant Management Analyst, to Associate Management Analyst, to Manager, and 2) place the Library’s finance staff on a more equitable footing with that of other City departments. An Associate Management Analyst would offer more capacity for analytic support for the Fiscal Services Manager position and workload, which is always helpful but especially important given the need to develop a Capital Improvements Budget and associated plan this year. The Associate position is better equipped to review the work of the Assistant and AOSIII.

Collection Services Full-time Library Assistant: The Collections Services Department currently has two part-time (20 hour per week) Library Aide positions and two part-time (20 hour per week) Library Assistant positions. The two Aide positions are vacant. The recommendation is to combine the two part-time Aide positions into one full-time Library Assistant position. The job description for Library Aide is narrow and clerical. Library Aides are not permitted to manipulate data. When the Library migrated to Carl from Sierra, Library Aides needed additional permissions to receive materials; the workflow needed to be revised.

Aides can open boxes and unpack materials and verify with packing slips. The material is then moved to the Library Assistant to receive materials. The materials are then given back to the Aide to process, jacket, add spine labels. Aides cannot add items to records for unprocessed materials. Assistants can do the receiving process from start to finish avoiding delays in getting material to patrons.

Labor and management have identified certain shared values, including: 1) creation of full-time positions—although it is not always the position of either labor or management that every position should be converted, there is agreement that depending on the circumstances, there is value in identifying opportunities to create full-time positions; and, 2) career development pathways for staff are valuable and need to be enhanced.

FISCAL IMPACT OF RECOMMENDATION

Personnel Budget (Library Tax Fund)

Overall, the Library proposes a reduction of 0 FTE from an authorized FY 2023/24 level. Authorized headcount would drop by one to 143 from 144. This is because instead of two part-time Aides, the Library would have one full-time Library Assistant.

As occurs during each budget development exercise, ending budgeted labor expenses within the Library Tax Fund are always subject to change based on updated labor cost calculations once staffing headcount changes are entered; consequently, staffing costs may vary slightly in contrast to what is presented in this report.

ALTERNATIVE ACTIONS
No alternative actions are proposed at this time. If the changes described above are not approved, then the Library will continue to operate as it has been, with less capacity to distribute more analytic and lead workload within the Information Technology and Administration/Finance teams. The Collections Services team will continue to operate with less efficiency in terms of how the processing workflow is conducted by existing staff and classifications.

FUTURE ACTION
On adoption by the Library Board of Trustees the Library will report this update to the City’s Budget Office to inform mid-cycle updates to the City’s overall budget.

To: Board of Library Trustees
From: Tess Mayer, Director of Library Services
Subject: Report on recruitment process to fill vacancy on Board of Library Trustees (BOLT) created by Trustee Davenport’s term end effective May 15, 2023

RECOMMENDATION
Review process to recruit for vacancy on Board of Library Trustees created by the end of Trustee Davenport’s second term, effective May 15, 2023 as described in the Board of Library Trustees Bylaws and Board of Library Trustees Nominations Policy (attachments). Per process, form an ad hoc subcommittee to steer the recruitment process.

FISCAL IMPACT
None.

BACKGROUND
The Board of Library Trustees may recommend to the City Council a nominee to replace Board vacancies. The City Council is not obligated to approve any nominees presented by BOLT. The Bylaws and Board of Library Trustees Nominations Policy enumerate the process by which BOLT may recommend a nominee, which centers on the creation of an ad hoc subcommittee to manage the process.

CURRENT SITUATION AND ITS EFFECTS
Trustee Davenport’s second term will end effective May 15, 2023. Given the need for ample time to execute the process, it is recommended that the Board form an ad hoc subcommittee as soon as possible to initiate the process soon. While the vacancy will not occur for several more months, it is desirable to complete the recruitment process before the transition must take place.

ALTERNATIVE ACTIONS CONSIDERED
This process could be delayed, but it is preferable to allow for as much time as possible to ensure a thorough and quality process.

RECRUITMENT INFORMATION
The current Boards and Commission page of the City’s website provides general information on commission vacancies and specific information for the Board of Library Trustees, including:

- Commission Application
- BOLT Supplemental Questionnaire
- And a link to the Board of Library Trustees webpage.

The Board of Library Trustees is authorized by the City of Berkeley Charter. Charter provisions concerning library trustees can be found in Charter § 30 (pages 31). Additional information related to the Board of Library Trustees can be found in Chapter 3.04 of the Berkeley Municipal Code.
FURTHER ACTION
If created now, the ad hoc subcommittee will next convene to initiate the process.

Bylaws of the City of Berkeley Board of Library Trustees (BOLT)

Berkeley Public Library strives to build community through its services, programs, and collections. The Library brings people together to share access to books, information, ideas, and culture. The Library is dedicated to building a community of lifelong learners who share an interest in personal and community development and enjoyment through literacies of all types. We serve a diverse community, and our services celebrate that diversity through a wide array of programs and collections that welcome, reflect, and include the diversity of Berkeley.

Mission Statement:
“We believe free, universal access to information is fundamental to a healthy democracy and that reading, and learning are key to a well-lived life. The Berkeley Public Library is a trusted hub of reading, learning, and community engagement.” (May 2020)

The Board of Library Trustees ("BOLT") shall endeavor to ensure that the mission of the Library is upheld, as well as the American Library Association’s Bill of Rights and the Urban Libraries Council’s Statement on Race and Social Equity.

BOLT is appointed by the Berkeley City Council to manage the Berkeley Public Library and all branch libraries (the “Library”) on behalf of the City and citizens of Berkeley, and to provide leadership, governance, and oversight.

Article I - Organization

13. Abide by and uphold BOLT’s decisions.

Article IV - Officers

BOLT Officers shall be the President, Vice President, and Secretary. BOLT shall elect one of its members President, and one of its members Vice-President. The President and Vice-President have full rights to make or second motions. The Director of Library Services shall be ex officio Secretary of the board.

1. Terms of Office:
   a. The President and Vice President shall be elected at the first BOLT meeting in October of each year.
b. The President and Vice President shall hold office for one (1) year terms, and until their successors are elected, unless their terms as member of BOLT expire sooner.

c. No board member shall serve as President for more than two (2) consecutive terms if so elected; The Vice President may serve an unlimited number of consecutive one (1) year terms, if so elected.

d. The Vice President does not assume the position of President if the President resigns from the Office of President or from BOLT, or is removed, but remains as the Vice President; however, the Vice President shall execute the President’s duties until a new President is elected.

e. In the event the Office of President or Vice President is vacated for any reason, a Special Election shall be completed within four months of such vacancy.

f. There is no automatic or presumptive succession from the office of Vice President to President, but the Vice President may be nominated and elected to the position of President in the same manner as any other Trustee.

g. If the offices of both the President and Vice President are vacated, the Trustee with greatest seniority on BOLT shall serve in the same manner as a Vice President, until such time as a President or Vice President is duly elected.

2. Procedures for Regular and Special Elections of the President and Vice President -
   a. Regular Elections:
      i. In August of each year, an information report shall be included on the Regular BOLT Meeting Agenda explaining the rules for elections to the Offices of President and Vice President and the duties of such Officers and calling for nominations to be made at the September BOLT meeting.
      ii. At the September BOLT meeting, nominations shall be agendized as an Action item. Trustees may nominate themselves or other Trustees for consideration for either or both Offices. Nominations require a motion, but no second, and may be declined by the nominee.
      iii. At the October BOLT meeting, the Election of a President and Vice President shall be agendized as two separate Action Items, with the office of President to be voted upon first. All Trustees accepting nomination for each office at the September meeting shall be listed. A duly nominated Trustee may be listed for either or both offices but may only be elected to one. The presiding officer shall call for any additional nominations (which may be declined) or declinations as the election for each office is taken up and, after closing nominations, shall allow each nominee an equal opportunity to speak on behalf of their own candidacy. Nominees may then be discussed by the full BOLT membership, after which the presiding officer shall call for a public roll-call vote for that office. Should a Trustee nominated to both the offices of President and Vice President be elected as President, their nomination for the office of Vice President shall be nullified. The results of each vote shall be publicly announced and recorded in the minutes.
iv. In the event no President or Vice President is elected on the first round at the October meeting, the presiding officer may call for additional rounds of nominations, speaking, discussion and voting at the same meeting until the office is filled, or may postpone the election for that office to the next regular meeting, at which time the same procedures for nominations, speaking, discussion and voting shall be followed.

b. Special Elections:
   i. Special Elections for the office of President or Vice President, necessitated by the resignation or removal of a President or Vice President prior to the expiration of their term as an officer or as a Trustee, shall follow the same three-meeting process as required for Regular Elections, unless the resignation or removal takes place in the three months preceding the date for a Regular October election, in which case no Special Election shall be required.

3. Duties of the President
   a. Serve as the Presiding Officer at all meetings and ensure BOLT’s work is accomplished.
   b. Ensure that all viewpoints are heard and are considered in a fair and impartial manner, while exerting sufficient control to eliminate irrelevant, repetitious, or otherwise unproductive discussion.
   c. Ensure that the Charter, Berkeley Municipal Code, BOLT Bylaws and other BOLT policies are followed. The President cannot make rules related to the conduct of meetings; only the full BOLT may do so.
   d. Approve the agenda prior to distribution. This is limited to the structure and order of the agenda and does not grant the President the authority to remove items submitted by other Trustees or staff.
   e. Appoint Trustees to ad hoc subcommittees, subject to the approval of BOLT.
   f. Sign correspondence on behalf of BOLT.
   g. Represent BOLT before the City Council. Other Trustees may represent BOLT before the City Council, but only with formal approval by motion and majority vote of BOLT.
   h. Approve final BOLT reports to Council, without modifying content that was approved by the full BOLT.

4. Duties of The Vice President
   a. Serve as the Presiding Officer in the absence of the President and perform all the functions of the President in their absence or disability.
   b. Perform such functions as may be assigned by the President or BOLT.

   a. As a trustee, I shall do my utmost to ensure that Berkeley Public Library performs its mission and achieves its goals. As a trustee I agree to:
   b. Act with honesty and integrity.
   c. Support in a positive manner all actions taken by the board even when I am in a minority position on such actions. m. This includes using my position for the advantage of my friends and business associates. If such a conflict does arise, I will declare that conflict before the board and recuse myself from consideration, discussion and voting on matters in which I have conflict. I agree to abide by the Berkeley Conflict of Interest Code and the conflict of interest provisions in the Commissioner’s Manual.

n. Develop familiarity with and follow City of Berkeley and Berkeley Public Library’s policies related to ethical conduct of staff and officials.

o. Abide by these board Bylaws.

2. BOLT members may interact with the public; however, if trustees are contacted by the public outside of a meeting, commissioners should encourage them to send their comments to the secretary for distribution to all commissioners or come to a BOLT meeting and speak at public comment. This will allow the full board to hear and consider all pertinent information and points of view.

3. Any time a commissioner uses their commission title or references their membership on the Board of Library Trustees when speaking publicly, they must state the following: “I am speaking in an individual capacity and not representing the Board of Library Trustees or the City of Berkeley.”

Pursuant to Section 30 of the Charter of the City of Berkeley (the “Charter”), “five Library Trustees shall be appointed and may be removed by a vote of five members of the Council and one of such trustees must be appointed by the Council from its own members.”

When a Board of Library Trustees (“BOLT”) vacancy has occurred or is planned to occur, the Board of Library Trustees can assist the City Council by facilitating a nomination process. This policy enumerates that process.

II. POLICY

The sub-committee will seek candidates with varied backgrounds, knowledge, abilities, expertise, and networks that can advance the Mission and Vision of the Library. The search objectives include finding candidates able to carry out the trustee role, functions, and duties, as described in the BOLT Bylaws.

C. Search Process - The sub-committee will convene to take account of current BOLT needs and to schedule the process for its purposes. The process will include the creation and posting of a vacancy announcement, the application period, the review of candidates, the recommendation to BOLT, and action taken by BOLT.

D. Vacancy Announcement - The sub-committee will write an announcement that BOLT is seeking interested parties, including the requirements thereof, the manner and form of applying, and the due date for submission of applications; the sub-committee, working with the Library Director and the City, and with the approval of BOLT, will advertise the call for interest.

of interest that addresses questions or topics enumerated by the ad hoc trustee nominating sub-committee.

F. Review of Candidates - The sub-committee will review each application based on the applicant’s submitted information. The purpose of the review is to identify nominees that meet the search objectives, will be able to carry out the duties and functions of the Trustee as stated in the Bylaws, will advance the Vision and Mission of the Library, and will be a resource for collaboration and partnerships on behalf of the Library.

G. Nominations – The sub-committee will provide a summary of its process, evaluation, and recommendation for one or more nominees to BOLT for action and furtherance to the Council. A recommendation from the ad hoc trustee nominating sub-committee is not binding.

Urban Libraries Council Annual Conference

Library Director Mayer attended the first Urban Libraries Council (ULC) Annual Forum event since the Covid pandemic began. The conference took place in Washington, D.C., hosted at the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Library. Representatives from many of North America’s urban library systems attended the event and discussed such topics such as current challenges facing urban public libraries, racism in democracy, and the library’s role in democracy.

The event featured many engaging speakers and conversations, including Christina Henderson, DC Councilmember, and Tommi Laitio, Bloomberg Public Innovation Fellow. Laitio was a particularly inspiring speaker who focused on the resources that libraries have in bringing together place, content, and people. He argued that there is inherent power in the way in which people come together in the library as a public place—a place where “you can be a somebody and develop skills to be a somebody” and find “tools for living with others and with yourself.” Laitio spoke to the way in which libraries downplay their own role when characterized simply as “more than books.” The challenge at this time is to more clearly articulate the ways in which libraries support community and democracy.

“Libraries are NOT neutral, and neither should they be. Rather they should be principled. And that makes all the difference.” ~ Featured Speaker Tommi Laitio during ULC’s 2022 Annual Forum

The ULC team worked with our Democracy Working Group and Anti-Racism action team to create a Declaration of Democracy (attached).

ULC member libraries have been invited to endorse this Declaration, and the Berkeley Public Library will sign on.

Civic Center Design Workshop

Staff members Bill Kolb, Library Services Manager-Central/Services, and Heather Cummins, Supervising Librarian of the Central Support Unit, acted as hosts to the City of Berkeley’s Office of Economic Development team’s Berkeley Civic Center Community Design Workshop in the second floor Mystery Room on Wednesday, November 16. Project planners from Siegel & Strain architecture and the City representatives invited members of the public to provide feedback about approaches toward developing a new civic center space downtown. Kolb reported that the event was a success, with potentially over a hundred attendees. The event highlighted the way in which Library resources regularly support public process and engagement.
World Cup Programming

When Library staff began exploring the idea of hosting World Cup viewing programs at the library, they also raised concerns around the fact that the tournament was scheduled to take place in Qatar. Staff led a conversation around how to best approach these concerns, and arrived at a decision: BPL will be screening all the World Cup 11am knock-out round games in December, but the Library will also be hosting a panel discussion that explores the ethical considerations that have been raised in the current public discourse. The public library is the ideal place to bring people together to engage in this kind of dialog. Program details follow:

   Panel Discussion:

   Social Justice & Sports

The World Cup is often seen as a global celebration of sport and culture and notably, this year’s tournament is the first to take place in the Middle East, in Qatar. However, organizations such as Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch have documented human rights issues in regards to migrant labor in the lead up to this tournament, and critics have been outspoken about Qatar’s record on women’s and LGBTQ+ rights.

Join us Thursday, December 8 at 7:30pm via Zoom for a panel discussion on the ethical issues surrounding the 2022 FIFA World Cup in Qatar.

We will explore broader patterns of global "sportswashing" and discuss how athletes and teams can be forces working toward social justice, locally and in solidarity with global struggles.

Panelists include:

- Alireza Azizi, Amnesty International’s country specialist for Qatar, Yemen, and United Arab Emirates
- Jules Boykoff, author of several books on the Olympic games and the politics of sport (and former USMNT soccer player)
- Dr. Nasser Mohammed, publicly out LGBTQ+ Qatari physician
- Lindsay Barenz, President of Oakland Soul, Oakland’s professional women’s soccer team

Central Library Plumbing Concerns

Since August there have been intermittent blockages of the main sewer line at the Central Library. The Library’s building maintenance team has worked tirelessly to both respond to and troubleshoot these issues. After repeated incidents similar in nature, and after analyzing footage from internal cameras, Building Maintenance Supervisor Brian Gavin has identified two contributing factors:

- Independent confirmation from City of Berkley Public Works staff and third-party vendors that the blockages have been caused almost exclusively by tri-fold paper towels only available to Library staff
- Discovery that a portion of the Library’s sewer main is out of alignment – two sections of pipe are not fully connected and the resultant ‘lip’ created between the pipes causes paper to hang up and create/exacerbate blockages
  - This misaligned section is underneath the middle of the sidewalk on Kittredge just north of the main entrance
  - Public Works will have to be engaged to excavate, repair, and re-bury the flawed sewer line

Ongoing responses/preventative measures:

- Regular proactive jetting of main sewer line to clear any blockages that might be forming
- Support from Berkeley Department of Public Works for blockage clearing and line vacuuming/jetting
- Support from City HR Occupational Health/Safety department
- Camera exploration of sewer line for potential sources of blockage
• Signage in all staff restrooms with reminder not to flush paper towels, feminine hygiene products, etc. – just toilet paper/seat covers
• First floor water fountains have been deactivated; drain lines will be capped to eliminate them as an outlet of backflow
• Request that janitorial staff cease restocking tri-fold paper towels
• Established procedures for building supervisors to respond to emerging situations
• Replaced floor drain caps in two places with double caps, which include one cap in line in the 4” pipe and one test cap.

Staff Appreciation

Many thanks to the Friends of Berkeley Public Library for providing the support for December’s staff appreciation activities. Library Management Team members will deliver boxed lunches to branch and Central Library staff on December 7. The delivery will include the distribution of new Berkeley Public Library branded lanyards for staff that they can use to wear their badges. Members of the BPL Racial Justice Advisory Group staff reads subcommittee will also be distributing copies of the first book: The Sum of Us: What Racism Costs Everyone and How We Can Prosper Together by Heather McGhee. It has been a challenging year, and we are grateful to everyone at BPL for their innumerable contributions.

1. ULC Declaration of Democracy
ULC Declaration of Democracy

Democracy is under siege throughout the world and close to home. Daily, we witness assaults on basic freedoms and human rights we’ve long cherished as books are banned, programs and events are canceled, disinformation and misinformation spread unchecked and racism is institutionalized. Democracy’s future is diminished when people’s access to power, information, a diversity of voices and the ability to influence policy are restricted. As cornerstones of democracy, it is incumbent upon libraries to stand up against all efforts to impede the democratic process and limit the full participation in civic life.

Banning books through policy and legislation is one such example of the challenges facing us. These efforts have unfortunately met with success in some parts of the United States as lawmakers codify restrictions on reading material – and we strongly stand against the furtherance of such restrictive policymaking.

As leaders of North America’s public libraries, we are committed to preserving, protecting and advancing the highest hopes and ideals of democracy so all members of our communities may fully participate in the democratic process. To meaningfully participate in society, people need access to a broad range of information and ideas, as well as opportunities for open, uncensored discourse to hear, read, debate and learn from each other’s perspectives.

It is for this reason that libraries as trusted institutions in their communities join to advance this Declaration and commit to the following:

- Educating and informing the public about the rights afforded to them in the United States Constitution and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, among them the freedom of religion, thought, speech, expression, belief, the press, peaceful assembly and association.\(^1\)
- Encouraging an active citizenry where all are engaged in creating an equitable and just society where everyone may realize their potential as individuals within the community.
- Serving as a convener for and facilitator of civic engagement and civil discourse, where all voices may be heard and respect is displayed for community members’ diverse opinions, thoughts, histories and cultural heritage.
- Increasing efforts to fight misinformation and disinformation, providing reliable resources and seeking new ways to help patrons find verifiable and accurate information.
- Leveraging programming, collections and other resources to promote human dignity, open dialogue and respect for diverse viewpoints, civil rights, and all other protections and freedoms fundamental to democracies, and based on the conviction that “laws and institutions must go hand in hand with the progress of the human mind”\(^2\), holding fast to the expectation that “the arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends toward justice”\(^3\), and that “the Just Society will be one in which the rights of minorities will be safe from the whims of intolerant majorities.”\(^4\)

We resolve to continue to create spaces where entering our doors is an act of participating in democracy, where people can read and learn freely from all points of view, make up their own minds and engage in their communities. We stand as proud leaders of libraries, and as such, we will continue to guard democracy’s great promise and ensure all those we serve are included in its fulfillment.
