Here are the books that we read in the 2018-19 school year ...

... and we will choose different books to read this year! We vote on books to read for the year at our October meeting!

Book Club members receive a copy to keep of the books that we discuss!

Sample discussion questions for Ban This Book:

Any Ann is the oldest kid in her family. Is being the oldest kid in the family different from not being the oldest kid in the family?

Any Ann has read her favorite book many times. What makes a book worth reading more than once?

Would knowing that a book is banned make kids want to read a book that they might not consider reading otherwise?
