Help your kindergartener continue to build early literacy skills:

- Talking: Children learn about language by listening to parents talk and joining in the conversation.
- Singing: Singing slows down language so children can hear the different sounds in words.
- Reading: Reading together develops vocabulary and comprehension, nurtures a love for reading, and motivates children to want to learn to read.
- Writing: Children become aware that printed letters stand for spoken words.
- Playing: Playing helps children put thoughts into words and talk about what they are doing.

Why should I read aloud to my kindergartener?

- Reading aloud helps children hear and learn new, longer words as well as more complex sentences.
- Books with lots of pictures are especially helpful for this purpose.
- Reading aloud increases the background knowledge which will help children read other books about that topic.
- Reading aloud models reading.
- Reading fun stories aloud motivates children to keep on with the task of learning to read.
- Reading aloud gives your child a chance to spend time with you. Talking about what you read together opens doors to more conversations.
