

OFF THE BEATEN PATH IN BERKELEY--WHERE'S DRAGON?

Meet Dragon! Dav Pilkey's dragon is visiting Berkeley this summer and there are photos to prove it. Can you identify where Dragon has been? Take a look at the five photos and clues. Then fill in the blanks with your guesses and bring this page to a Berkeley Public Library by August 6, 2022 to collect a prize.

1

Where can you find a flock of sheep, a brood of chickens, a colony of rabbits, a gaggle of geese, and a drove of pigs all living together amongst tall eucalyptus trees?

2

Where can Berkeley grownups go to borrow an ice cream maker AND a cement mixer at the same time?

berkeleypubliclibrary.org

more on other side

3

Where do Berkeley sailboats go to sleep?

4

Up 4 flights of stairs, you can find many dragons and books about them...where am I?

5

Where in Berkeley can you hang out on a whale while taking in the view?

Read about Dragon's adventure's in Dragon Gets By and A Friend for Dragon and more by Dav Pilkey. Print and ebooks available with your library card!

