

Children's Books, Videos, Events, and More!

These are a just few of our favorites from the past year...

We love hearing about your favorites and making recommendations on books we think you might enjoy. Chat with us when you come to the library! We can also put some books on hold for you, based on your reading interests, if you fill out a personalized book picks form.

Bits & Pieces on YouTube

Have you checked out the Berkeley Public Library Kids YouTube Channel?

There you can find various event recordings, as well as our Bits & Pieces videos: songs, rhymes, fingerplays, crafts, and a little bit of this and that! Plus look out for more snippets on our Instagram, and play along with your little ones.

Book Adventures

Learn about our local amphibians, their metamorphoses, and the watershed they depend on (right here in Berkeley!) with AmphibaPhest Book Adventures!

Watch the recording of our November Zoom event with a naturalist from Lindsay Wildlife, explore book lists and videos about different amphibians (including axolotls!), enjoy crafts, coloring pages and more.
